Even tho Pete and his wife r famous and professionals they both still remain very humble and down to earth, they don't like r want to draw attention to themselves when out in public. They reside in Lake Sherwood California.

I play tennis and some day I would like to be as good as Pete was. He is an inspiration to me and to many others. Hard work pays off and when you are passionate about something, give it your all and practice. Yes there will be a lot of people out in the world who will give you negative comments and write things on social media, but never let the bad bring you down. Just keep being you and do what you love doing. Life is what you make of it, not what others have to say about you.
