

Perfect Pancakes!

Traditionally Pancake Tuesday is celebrated each year on the Tuesday before lent. This year we celebrated pancake Tuesday on the 4th of March. But do you know why it's celebrated the day before lent? It's because some people give up the ingredients used in pancakes on lent so they stuff them selves with pancakes on pancake Tuesday.

Fascinating Pancake Facts:

- 1 Around 52 million eggs are used in the UK on Pancake Tuesday.
- 2 The largest pancake ever made weighed about three tonnes.
- 3 In Finland on Pancake Tuesday people eat green pea soup and pastries.
- 4 Pancake Tuesday is also known as Shrove Tuesday.
