

The Fearful Famines

The different famines

- 1 There has been loads of different famines in different countries but the worst of them all is the Russian famine (1921), The Great Bengal famine of 1770, the Dajj bera Famine, The chalisa famine, the Ukraine famine (1932), The northern Chinese famine (1876), the Chinese famine ~~(1907)~~ (1907) and the worst of them all The Great Chinese famine which started in 1959 and ended in 1961.
- 2 The deadliest famine was the Great Chinese famine, it lasted from 1959-1961 and only in 2 years it killed 15-55 million people! The earliest recorded famine which occurred in Egypt in 3500 BC was preserved visually in a relief that survives on the causeway of the fifth-dynasty pyramid of Unas at Sakkarah.
- 3 Many famines are created by natural causes such as drought, flooding, unseasonable cold, typhoons, vermin depredations insect infestations and plant diseases.
- 4 There has been loads of different famines and maybe more to come what do you think will there be more famines in the future.
