

Trump Interferes In Ukraine War!

Donald Trump tries to arrange Peace deal with Putin.

Donald Trump is in talks with Putin to discuss a peace deal to halt the war in Ukraine. Trump believes that the war in Ukraine is costing a lot of money. Trump's plan is mostly about using his good relationship with Putin to help find a peaceful solution.

Trump and Zelensky the Ukrainian president met at the Oval office at the White House to discuss the war. This was broadcast live around the world. This did not end well. Zelensky was told he was not thanked for American support and if no deal is made America is not supporting Zelensky anymore.

Let's hope an agreement is reached and they can resolve all issues and build a good relationship again.
