

Fermanagh V Derry

Hi my name is Joshua Hill reporting to you from Croke Park, Dublin for the All Ireland Final between Derry and Fermanagh. The Referee throws the ball up and Big Joe McDade battles for the ball but Derry win it and start an attack on goal. Conor Glass goes for a point but it drops short and the goal keeper plays it his half back. Fermanagh pass it around their half but suddenly Derry win possession and start a counter attack. Brendan Rogers goes for a point and scores. Now the score is 0-01 0-00 to Derry. Fermanagh play the ball at the back before Big Joe McDade really pushes it into Derry's half and takes a score. Now it is all level at 0-01 to 0-01. Derry respond by putting a long ball into Fermanagh's half. Fermanagh defend and it looks like it might a goal for Fermanagh. It is, Fermanagh score a goal bringing us up to half time.

At half time the scores are 0-01 1-01 to Fermanagh.

As the Second half starts, Big Joe McDade wins the break but Derry tackle and start to burst forward to score a goal. Now the scores are level again at 1-01 1-01. The Fermanagh goal keeper plays a long ball from the kickout and Ultan Kelm takes a point edging Fermanagh ahead to 1-01 1-02. Derry try to take a short kickout but Fermanagh win it and score a goal. Now it is 1-01 to 2-02. Derry take a long kickout but into the hands of Big Joe McDade leaving him free to take the point. Derry try another long kickout again winning it and immediately push up and score a point leaving the score at 1-02 -2-02. Coming into the final minutes Big Joe McDade again has the ball, goes for goal, he scores just as the final hooter is blown! Fermanagh have just won their first All Ireland Title ever. There will be celebrations for weeks! Well done Fermanagh. I knew you had it in you!
