

NEWSPAPER

INFORMATION . WORLD . BUSINESS . FINANCE . LIFESTYLE . TRAVEL . SPORT

Local Legend Scouted For Man United

by Harry Watters

Where it started

At the Foyle Cup this year youngster Harry Watters got picked up by English club Man United .In the Foyle Cup Final .The game started well for Harry dribbling past two defenders and crossed it back to Alfie McCabe but his shot went wide.

Something that impressed the scout was his passion .When he lost the ball he fought hard to win it back but he was up against A difficult side . Foyle Harps who had a strong team and lead Harrys team to penalty's after over time .

The Big Penalty's

Harry stood up first confident and Humble which Darren McCleary the scout liked and he rattled it into the net as cool as you like. The nervy penalty's went on forever but the Mallards took home the big shiny trophy home and at the age of 12

Harry Watters is happy to be playing for Man United .

This Is What Harry Watters had to say

I Am delighted to be selected for Man United I didn't have a clue that I was ever a stand out player to scouts . I love it at Man United it is such a challenging club to get into and the training is so good and I am so happy here at Man United i hope i can make it in the first team one day.